

François Rougier

Tenor

After studying at Sciences-Po and the Grenoble Conservatory, François Rougier gained recognition winning prizes at Clermont-Ferrand and Mâcon competitions. He trained at the Académie de l'Opéra-Comique and has been a member of its New Favart troupe since 2018. He debuted in Platée and Così fan tutte with Les Musiciens du Louvre and collaborates with director Alexandra Lacroix on experimental music theater projects. He has performed at Opéra de Paris (Les Huguenots, Carmen), Opéra-Comique (Le Domino Noir, Les Éclairs), Liège, Lausanne, Lille, Versailles. His concert work includes Bach's Passions, Handel's Messiah, and Saint-Saëns' Oratorio de Noël. Among his recent projects, the role of Don José (Carmen) on tour under the baton of René Jacobs, Giannino (L'Uomo Femina) in Dijon, Caen and Versailles, L'Aumônier (Dialogues des Carmélites) in Rouen, Don José again (Carmen, Cour d'assises) in Limoges and Pluton/Aristée (Orphée aux Enfers) in Aachen.